ORDER OF ON-LINE SERVICE – SUNDAY 19th July 2020

Before the service starts you may wish to listen to this song:-

The King has come

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0bRBA9yPLCQ>

Welcome

Lord, speak to us that we may hear your word.

Move among us

that we may behold your glory.

Receive our prayers

that we may learn to trust you.

Amen.

Confession

Lord God, we have sinned against you;

we have done evil in your sight.

We are sorry and repent.

Have mercy on us according to your love.

Wash away our wrongdoing and cleanse us from our sin.

Renew a right spirit within us and restore us to the joy of your salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Absolution

Psalm 119:65-72

65 You have dealt graciously with your servant, according to your word, O Lord.

66 O teach me true understanding and knowledge,
for I have trusted in your commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray,
but now I keep your word.

68 You are gracious and do good;
O Lord, teach me your statutes.

69 The proud have smeared me with lies,
but I will keep your commandments with my whole heart

70 Their heart has become gross with fat,
but my delight is in your law.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn your statutes.

72 The law of your mouth is dearer to me than a hoard of gold and silver.

Reading

Acts 5:17-42

Sermon

Creed

We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named.
We believe in God the Son,
who lives in our hearts through faith,
and fills us with his love.
We believe in God the Holy Spirit,
who strengthens us with power from on high.
We believe in one God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Prayers

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THIS WEEK

Placing our thanks and concerns into the Father's hands...

Heavenly Father, our ever-present help in trouble, our fortress and our God: calm the anxious fears of all who turn to you; give strength and healing to those who are sick, and courage and skill to those who care for them; grant wisdom and clarity to those in authority; and humble us all to call upon you that we may be saved not only in this life, but also for that which is to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Loving heavenly Father, at this time of great uncertainty in our country and around the world, we pray that people would turn to you for stability and comfort. We pray particularly for those who don't yet know Jesus, that through some means in the midst of all that is happening they would hear the good news of him. Grant them repentance and a knowledge of the truth, that they may know you and the secure joy of eternal life in him. For we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

Our gracious Father, thank you for all those working in health care, and especially those in our congregation who are serving the community within the NHS and public health bodies. Grant them, and all who work in essential services, protection and strength for each day's challenges, and to work with skill and patience. We also pray for the Prime Minister, the chief medical and scientific officers and the whole Government that they and those who work with them will have wisdom and insight sufficient for the decisions they need to make at this difficult time. We also thank you for the hard work of the Anglican Church at a National and a Diocesan level. We ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

Lord Jesus Christ, during your earthly ministry you healed the sick: look with favour on your servants who are ill at this time. Give wisdom and insight to those who care for them; and, if it be your will, restore them to health, so that they may live to praise you for your goodness and grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God of provision and care, discernment and knowledge: lead us in your love, empower us by your Spirit, and equip us with your gifts; give us hearts full of love for all people, minds open to the signs of the times, and wisdom to know how to respond to the voice of your calling. We ask this through him who's coming is certain, whose day draws near, your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray for those in need known us; Bethany Whiddon, Peggy Clark (Lynn Whiddon's Mum), Joe and Daph Smith, Clive, Brian Emmett (Julie Wilson's Dad), John Franklin, Dave Keyes, Jo Roddy, David Suttling. Eileen Wady (Jan Willis' Sister) and Jean Dawson (temporarily in a care home). The bereaved; The Breward Family. Also pray for those in our church family and parish thinking particularly of Trinity Road Primary School who returned for set year groups this week. Pray too for their search for a new headteacher and Chair Of Governors.

Pray for our mission partners; Harrison Mungai (Crosslinks), Penny & Juan Carlos de Marces, Nick Russell (Church Army), Ruth Webster (United Mission to Nepal) and Bibles For China (Bible Society). Give thanks that the Greenwich Centre of Mission is able to distribute 130 snack and activity packs to children and young people each week and, where food bank parcels are being rationed, they're able to provide supermarket vouchers.

Pray into the situation in Nigeria being described as unfolding genocide and characterised as the farmer-herder conflict. Violence has manifested along ideological lines, the herders being predominantly ethnic Muslims and the farmers predominantly Christians. The Nigerian Government's failure to respond adequately to the violence by protecting communities and bringing perpetrators to justice has allowed the situation to deteriorate.
